

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 26

Thursday, February 20, 2020

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 1:30 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by House Chaplain Tim Perrier, upon invitation of the Speaker:

Father, some things seem endless to us, like eighth grade graduation ceremonies or 60-day legislative sessions. But eventually, they do come to an end. Then there are things that we think have an ending, like Your patience with us, or Your forgiveness, or Your love. But thankfully, these things have no end. It's hard for our limited minds to understand Your unlimited love—so easy to think that Your love is given or taken away based on our behavior. Help us to understand that the most fundamental truth of our lives is that we have a creator who knows us fully and loves us more than we can comprehend. If we were able to understand this deep in our hearts, not just in our heads, we would be more humble and compassionate, and we would be better equipped to be parents, coworkers, neighbors, public servants. So I pray that You would remind each one of us that we are all equally loved by You.

We also pray that families and friends back home would be reminded of this, and that they would be comforted and kept safe while they are away from those serving in this Chamber. In Your loving name we pray. Amen.
